INGLESIDE

HOUSE & GARDENS

Welcome to Ingleside House

Following a sympathetic refurbishment Ingleside House has kept all the character and charm to be a stunning Grade II listed building in the heart of the Cotswolds, Cirencester.

The house, originally known as Beeches House, was built in 1825. It has quite a story from being a family home, an armoury through the war, a community centre and a school.

Now, you can be a part of that story and get married at this beautiful wedding and events venue brimming with history.

Ingleside is a bespoke wedding venue. It's make up means you can tailor our facilities for your special day. The central town house specialises in elegant intimate weddings whilst our Theatre and Pavilion offer options for larger events.

Whether your wedding guests number from 4 to 120, Ingleside's team of event specialists can make your wedding the day of your dreams, offering a truly personalised service. Our Wedding Co-Ordinators will help you plan your day and a Front of House Manager will look after you from start to finish.

Make your appointment today and start your incredible journey.

Your Ceremony

As well as hosting your wedding reception, Ingleside House can also host your wedding ceremony.

We are licensed for Civil Ceremonies and Partnerships by the Gloucestershire Registration Service allowing you to spend your whole wedding day in the comfort of our grounds.

Your Civil Ceremony can be tailored to your requirements, working with the Registration Service.

If you wish to get married at Ingleside, you will need to book the Ceremony and Registrar with the Local Registry Office - there will be appropriate fees for this service.
